

In my opinion K-Love provides a valuable service to our community and my family and I do not want to lose our K-Love signal. We listen to their station daily and will be extremely upset if their programming is not provided. It is definitely in our best interest to have this wholesome and positive radio station available.